Bead Chain Stitch

Before, please read the background information in the Basic Knowledge and General Tips section on this page.

In the video clip above, you'll learn how to create a beaded chain stitch. The video shows you how to work the chain stitch, and how to work the chain stitch with a loop on the end.

To work the stitch, use the beading thread with a loop on the end.

When stitching on a single bead, attach the thread to the center of the circle variation.

Common mistakes to avoid when stitching the chain stitch:

- Don't pull the thread too tight when stitching the chain stitch.
- Don't pull the thread too tight when stitching the chain stitch.
- Don't pull the thread too tight when stitching the chain stitch.

Caged Crystals

How to do it....

For maximum clarity, the making of Caged Crystals video clip has been worked using a button and perle #5 thread. If you would like to try working with a 23mm button and the same thick perle #5 thread.
